Lt. Hart Bombs Nippon Island

Among the charter members of the "I Bomber Japan" club is First Lt. Thomas L. Hart of Orange, student of Santa Ana Junior college in 1941-42 and brother of Freshman Dave Hart.

Lt. Hart was among the first fliers who participated in the raid of the Japanese naval base on Paramushiru island, which took place last July.

Have 156 Members

The club is open to those flyers who have bombed Japan, her islands, or mandated islands, and the membership roll now carries the names of 156 men.

The flight from Attu to Paramushiru was 750 miles across the Bering Sea, and they were met with little opposition by the enemy. For this flight and frequent raids on Kiska, Hart was awarded the Army's Air Medal.

Held Shack Meeting

One meeting of the group has been held by the first members in a small shack in the Aleutians, and at this meeting Major Louis Blau of Los Angeles was elected president. The only rule for retaining membership is that members are required each Fourth of July to drink a toast to the others in the club.

Began Training Here

Lt. Hart took the Civilian Pilot Training course here in 1941 and at the outbreak of war joined the Army Air Forces, receiving his commission in August of 1942. He was sent to the Aleutians in December and remained there until August of this year.

Many Holiday Jobs Open To Students

"Christmas employment this year is going to be made up largely of part-time student work," Miss Genevieve Humiston, placement head, announced today, "so there are many opportunities for students interested in part-time employment."

Miss Humiston further stated that since the demand for help is so great, the need of applicants is also serious. Any student wishing employment for the holidays may contact Miss Humiston for positions.

One warning has been issued by the placement office and that is all students whether they received employment through the bureau or wish to work hours during the holiday season which will interfere with their program hours must make a clearance through the employment office so their absences may be excused.

Students may contact Miss Humiston in her office daily at 11:30 p.m. for any further information concerning employment.

Beverly Palmer Made Circulation Manager

Miss Beverly Palmer, freshman journalism student, will act as circulation manager of El Don this year, according to Mrs. Grace M. Knipe, adviser for the paper.

El Don is now sent to more than 180 persons, most of which are service men. Miss Palmer's responsibility is to see that copies of the paper are mailed to these persons on the day of publication.

Miss Palmer states that anyone wishing to have a copy sent to a former student should leave the student's name and address in J-2.

A graduate of Cooley high school, Detroit, Michigan, Miss Palmer was active there in journalism.

Tavern Post Literary Contest Opens Today, Editor Announces

Today marks the opening of a literary contest for all junior college students sponsored by Tavern Post, Editor Dorothy Winterborne has announced.

Acceptable material from this contest will be published in the Post, which will be distributed at the end of the first semester. Prizes for the best prose and poetry will be presented soon after the date of publication, Miss Winterborne stated.

Ask For Variety

Variety is the keynote of the contest, which closes November 23. The Post staff asks for character sketches, short stories, essays, and plays in prose writing and sonnets, humorous verse, cinquans, triolets, or any other form of poetry.

All contributions to Tavern Post will automatically become entries in the contest and eligible for the two awards.

Head Publicity

Publicity and arrangements for the contest are under the direction of Miss Winterborne, Melvin Trickey, and Elizabeth Baker.

Mrs. Grace M. Knipe is adviser for the literary publication, which is usually issued twice a year under the sponsorship of Tavern Tattlers. This year, however, the magazine has been cut to one edition by wartime necessities.

LIBRARY HAS BATTLE EXHIBIT ON DISPLAY

Fifteen decisive battles of the world are the display theme around which Miss Muriel Anderson, assistant librarian, has centered a timely exhibit in the main library room.

The Battle Map of History and Story in color is posted on the west table and gives the background for an assortment of current books.

Tying the past battles of the world with the present conflict, this group of books, most of which are authored by press correspondents, has been placed on the table. In this group are "War Discovers Alaska," Joseph Driscoll; "Desert War," Russell Hill; "Mediterranean Assignment," Richard McMillan; "Suez to Singapore," Cecil Brown; "The Flying Tigers," Russell Whelan; "They Call It Pacific," Clark Lee; and "Queens Die Proudly," W. L. White.

Army, Navy Tests Given Tuesday

Army specialized training and Navy V-12 qualifying tests are to be given Tuesday in College hall from 9 to 11 a.m. for all men between 17 and 21 years of age who have completed their high school course or will have done so by March 1, 1944, Frank A. Henderson, superintendent of city schools made known today.

"The examination will begin promptly, and doors will be absolutely closed after 9 a.m. Therefore, all interested in taking the test must be on time," Ernest C. Phillips, armed service representative, discolored.

May Obtain Blanks

Mr. Phillips further stated that information and application blanks may be obtained at his office in College hall any school day between 10:30 and 11:30 a.m.

Designed to test the aptitude and general knowledge of college training is the purpose of this test which will be taken by both Army and Navy applicants, but each candidate will be given his choice of preferred service.

Will Attend College

Men selected by the Navy will be assigned to college on an active duty status and will receive uniform and pay while attending school.

Army students will be enrolled in college training after first receiving proper screening and basic military training required of all such applicants. All expenses of tuition, board and room, books, and uniforms will be paid by Uncle Sam.

Henderson Attends School Heads Meet

Superintendent Frank A. Henderson issued a report today on a conference of Southern California superintendents at Los Angeles last Friday.

Rehabilitation Discussed

One of the important matters discussed was that of vocational and educational rehabilitation of service men now being released and of the millions to be released when the war is won.

It is reported that eight thousand per month are now being released to civilian life and these men are promised educational direction and support if they wish to accept it. The junior colleges are prepared to render this rehabilitation service, and the important task now is to secure the approval of military officials for the designation of junior colleges as training centers for this service.

Will Meet Again

The junior college authorities through the junior college committee are meeting in Los Angeles November 20 to discuss these and other problems and at Los Angeles again on December 3 and 4 with the Parent-Teachers association.

Mr. McCoy will attend these meetings with the superintendent, and both will attend the state convention of junior colleges at Bakersfield on December 9 and 10.

Board May Vote Earlier Vacation For Jaysee

The Board of Education at their meeting next Monday evening, in the interest of service during the Christmas season, will consider a request to have the Christmas holidays December 10 through December 24 instead of December 17 to January 3 as now planned.

Trial Will Be Held At 10:40 On South Lawn

Fifteen freshman men and women will go on trial this morning at 10:40 when the annual Kangaroo Court convenes on the south lawn of the campus, Judge Robert Jones presiding.

Attorneys Named

Defending attorney for the frosh who will go on trial for numerous misdemeanors perpetrated during the six-week initiation period will be Henrietta Grisette. Prosecution will be handled by Pat Patterson.

Jurymen who will hear the presentation of cases will be Eugene Frisby, Beth Thorndike, Mary Alice Eklund, Dorothy Winterborne, Barbara Nelson, and Pat Collins.

Bailiffs Appointed

Bailiffs for the mock trial will be Gene Bezore, Marvin Carlton, Doug Byres, Bill McPhee, Barbara Cox, and Adah Mae Adkins.

Marilyn Murray will act as jailer and Shirley Wright, as court clerk.

Will Be Sentenced

Following the assembly war stamps will be sold at the booth in College hall.

DEL ANO EDITOR for this year's publication will be Ethel Schoneman, member of staff for last year's All-American annual.

Schoneman Named '44 Del Ano Editor

Ethel Schoneman, sophomore English major, will head Del Ano as editor-in-chief, Miss Frances Egge, yearbook adviser announced today. With previous experience on the '43 All-American annual and editorship of her high school yearbook, Miss Schoneman is now organizing her staff.

Also receiving staff appointments were Muriel Verdugo as associate editor and Bernita Horton art editor. Both are sophomore students and received considerable experience working with last year's annual.

Kathryn Stern, freshman student and advertising manager of El Don, has been appointed business manager for the annual spring publication, it was also learned.

(Although, other editors had not been announced at press time today, Miss Schoneman requests all students interested in any phase of the yearbook, photography, art, or literary to get in touch with Miss Egge or her as soon as possible.

"We would like to know who is interested so further appointments can be made and the staff organized," Miss Schoneman disclosed.

Junior Councilor Speaks Before YW

Miss Shirley Herbig, councilor for the Santa Ana Junior YWCA, spoke to college women on the background and formation of the YWCA in an informal pot-luck luncheon Wednesday at 1:30 in the women's lounge.

Miss Herbig stressed the fact that the college YW, the community YW, and all citizens should work together. She suggested that the numerous pamphlets at the community YW would be of interest to women here and be helpful for cabinet members in planning their YW activities for the year.

Mrs. Gail Smith, adviser for the club, attended. Women brought their own sandwiches; potato salad, cookies, and tea were furnished.

Cabinet Appointed

Cabinet appointments announced by President Pat Patterson were: devotional chairman, Evelyn Westenberg; program chairman, Gertrude Kinzey; service chairman, Mary Tozier; membership chairman, Barbara Cox; acting secretary, Edna Requarth.

In order to plan the year's activities newly-appointed cabinet members and officers will meet at Mrs. Smith's home Thursday, Nov. 18.

Stay For Red Cross

Thursday the YW will stay for Red Cross, and women are requested to bring their own scissors. All women are urged to attend even though they have not supported the club's first activities.

Civilian and naval students on the Georgia Tech campus are conducting a contest to name the queen of all Techmen's girl friends. The winner will be dubbed: "The Girl I'd Rather Be Restricted With."

Letters To Editor

To the Editor:

Should the men have a lounge as the women or are they going to be left "out in the cold" again this year?

An active campaign has been started by the boys to secure themselves a bungalow which can be made into a lounge. They had a lounge several years ago, but because a few of the "boys" forgot where they were and damaged it, the privilege was taken away. This is only natural, for some sort of punishment must be inflicted.

But another class is here, a class whose members think they are more responsible than their former brother Dons. Are they going to be denied or shall they keep their present temporary facilities on the lawn?

The men have signified their intentions of "scraping" together enough furniture to make the place presentable. Are they going to have a bungalow or are they going to suffer because of the unfortunate acts of their predecessors?—A.T.

To the Editor:

The men on our campus are sorely in need of a lounge. A few energetic fellows have erected a mock lounge—erected it in the hope that some unselfish and enterprising individual will come to their rescue. They have suffered a severe letdown, and we are at fault. Perhaps we agree that one is necessary, but what constructive move have we made? Active opposition is no more fatal to a cause than lukewarm approval.

I do not here offer a solution—I seek merely to remind you of a condition which exists and is in need of an immediate remedy. Remember—four cold benches offer little comfort on a wintry day.—B.A.F.

Women students out-number the men at the University of Texas this fall for the first time in history. The normal proportion is two men to each woman, but in this war year, registration of women is 3,291 as compared to 3,155 men.

So Small a Price....

"Three months ago it was I who answered the door when the telegram came. It was I who watched as my mother read it. My brother, George, had been killed in action.

"We regret to inform you . . . Words, cold, realistic words, that meant only one thing to us. They meant that George would never be there in the kitchen with that teasing look in his eyes and that lock of sandy hair down over his forehead, waiting for my cookies to come out of the oven. Nor sit with his long legs over the arm of the big chair there by the window. No, George was gone—irretrievably gone forever.

"Then last Monday a letter came. It was from Ken, a buddy of George's of whom he had often written. Ken's letter wasn't easy to take; I guess he knew it wouldn't be when he wrote it. But it told us about George, and that's what we had to know.

"My brother was one of the many whose lives might have been saved if there had been enough blood plasma for all of the wounded. But there wasn't, and when George was brought in with his leg badly shattered, there was no way of replacing the blood that he had lost.

"That night I cried for hours. And then suddenly I stopped to realize that crying would never bring George back to the kitchen or to the big chair by the window. But I wanted to save the tears of some other sister, whose brother would not be forced to sacrifice his life for the need of a small package of dried plasma.

"Tuesday morning I gave my blood and saved a life. A few minutes' time for a family's happiness—not much of a price to pay for something that means so much. I know."—S.J.W.

C Literary Group Hears Club History

Mrs. Eleanor Northcross, former English instructor and dean of women, addressed a special meeting of Tavern Tattlers on the background of the organization when old members and prospective ones gathered Tuesday in the Women's lounge for punch and cookies. Mrs. Northcross reviewed the history of Tavern Tattlers and discussed the work published in Tavern Post through the past years.

Announcement of the Tavern Post contest was made at the meeting by Mrs. Grace Knipe, adviser. The contest is open to all students from November 5 to 23. Poetry or prose will be accepted, and the best creative efforts will be published in Tavern Post, with awards and prizes being made after publication. Posters in the hall and El Diario will carry further announcements concerning the contest.

Prospective members attending the meeting presided over by Pat Collins, president, were Elizabeth Tucker, Lois Bogardus, Walter Luckner, Virginia Harter, Kearney Luers, Virginia Price, Kathryn Stern, Melvin Trickey, Roberta Todd, Vivian Gothard, Lois Randall, Mary Rouse, Agnes Bailey, Betty Rodreick, and Adah Mae Adkins.

GITANAS INITIATION TO BE HELD MONDAY

Formal initiation for new members of Las Gitanas will be held on Monday at the home of Miss Mary Alice Eklund.

Miss Dorothy Winterbourne was hostess at the informal initiation held Monday. At that time pledges, after being blindfolded, attempted to feed one another ersimmons. Next they were given raw eggs to eat, and also alum and jelly between crackers. To remove the taste of the alum, each pledge received a glass of water with bicarbonate of soda in it.

Refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the evening.

CAPITOL TO CAMPUS

65,000 CAREERS FOR WOMEN

WASHINGTON (ACP)—Uncle Sam is hunting for 65,000 women who will accept professional training—with pay—for careers in nursing.

Behind this large-scale recruiting drive is a dangerous shortage of nurses in industrial boom towns near war plants, and in other communities whose nurse-power has been drawn into military service.

Unless thousands of additional women enter nursing, death and disease may stalk the country from end to end.

Under the provisions of the Bolton Act of June, 1943, which established the Cadet Nurse Corps, women entering nursing under the federal program will receive recognition for war service on a par with the WACS, WAVES, and SPARS.

They will receive special uniforms, a regular monthly allowance, room, board, books, special fees and laundry. They will receive free tuition in an accredited nursing school of their own choice.

In exchange, the Nurse Cadets must promise to remain in either military or essential civilian nursing for the duration. But they will not be required to sign for military duty if they don't want it.

The Division of Nurse Education of the U.S. Public Health Service, which is in charge of the recruitment, has high hopes for the success of its program. But it is taking no chances. It is making every kind of appeal known to woman. Among these appeals are—

1. The marriage rate among nurses is probably higher than that of any profession.
  2. Nursing is one of the best possible preparations for successful home life—nurses make fine wives and mothers.
  3. Nurses come into daily contact with people of attainment and leadership.
  4. Uniforms are designed and chosen by leading fashion experts.
- No one denies the probability of much truth behind these appeals.

But the most important fact is that nurses are badly needed. College women, with their intelligence and special skills, could play no more essential war role.

CREDIT FOR MILITARY EXPERIENCE

College students expecting to be drafted and those who are already in the armed forces might file this away for future reference.—Announced here this week was the establishment of the U.S. Armed Forces Institute at Madison, Wisconsin, as a central clearing house of information on college credit for military experience. At the request of any person in the armed forces or a person recently discharged from service, the Institute will assemble all information on his—or her—service activities of an educational nature. It will also transmit such information to the school or college of the individual's choice.

Meanwhile, the nation's colleges have agreed on some basic points about post-war education.—If the colleges have their way, servicemen and women returning to college campuses after the war will be granted scholarships to study anything from Medieval English to engineering, medicine or law.—What the colleges have in mind is a broad educational program which would include liberal arts, and vocational, professional, and refresher courses.

They are determined to avoid the mistake, made after the last war, of assuming that vocational education alone will be of value to returning military personnel.

The colleges further went on record as favoring some type of voluntary planning to gear their graduates to the needs of post-war industry.

This could be done, they agreed, by relating their educational programs to the technical, supervisory and professional needs in their areas.

The colleges were also in favor of national surveys to obtain all possible information on country-wide, potential employment needs. But they formed a solid block of opinion against government-established student quotas based on those needs.

Such employment information, they said, should be used only as a guide for counselling their students.

An Ugly Man contest was sponsored last spring on the San Jose State College campus in California by Alpha Phi Omega, scout service fraternity. At a penny a vote, $150 was earned by the ballots to contribute to a war purpose.

Spinsters To Meet At M. Kubitz Home

Sisterhood of Spinsters will hold a formal initiation for new members on Monday evening at the home of Miss Madilyn Kubitz, club president.

To the informal initiation, held Wednesday with Mrs. Venice Wetherell, club adviser, as hostess, the pledges brought a can of worms and a pair of rubber boots. These new members were subjected to eating alum, rotten eggs, and to wearing rubber boots with "worms" in them. After this, the old members sifted flour through the pledges' hair.

Music Society Holds Formal Initiation

Sigma Phi Sigma, honorary music society, held its formal initiation at the home of Concert Mistress Ada Mae Harbough, 522 S. Sycamore, Monday evening.

In an impressive candle-light ceremony the pledge of the society was taken by the seven newly-accepted members, who are Donna Cocking, Ruth Gale, Shirley Weiss, Beverly Palmer, Mary Olive Tozier, Anita Wollert, and Ronald Troutman.

A short business meeting followed with Honorary Member Fredrica Ewing conducting the

La Fonda Will Be Scene of Initiation

La Fonda will be the setting for Las Meninas' formal initiation, which will be held Wednesday evening.

During the initiation period, there existed an intra-club contest, with the pledges divided into two teams, each group seeking to bring in the most scraps and books for the Naval Air Station.

At the informal initiation, held recently in the Women's gym at Lincoln school, the winning team initiated the losing group, who had planned the refreshments for the evening. Afterward, the old members initiated the whole pledge group, putting them over an obstacle course, which consisted of rope jumping, swimming, and climbing over a barricade of chairs.

Highlight of the evening was the passing of the traditional box of chocolates by Miss Janice Winbiger to announce her engagement to Richary Haney, U. S. Navy, who is now attending college in Colorado under the V-12 program.

Election of officers. Adah Mae Adkins will serve as director; Ada Mae Harbaugh, concert-mistress; Beverly Palmer, secretary, and Ronald Troutman, treasurer.

Eleven Men Turn Out For Opening Of Basketball Practice On Monday

With Bill Foote's appointment as head basketball coach the season officially started Monday, nine men reporting for practice at the high school gymnasium.

Since the Saints are using the gym in the early afternoon, the Dons will practice from 4:00 p.m. until about 5:30 p.m., according to Foote.

Play Opener With Base

Foote also announced that the Dons will open the season with a practice game against the Air Base Medical Detachment on November 24. The remaining schedule is yet undecided, but will be worked out later.

Piloteers Will Pledge Members In Chapel

Monday night is the date set for the formal initiation of Piloteers, which will be held in the chapel of the First Methodist Church.

The Golden home on Kilson Drive was the scene of the informal initiation last Friday evening. Pledges appeared with no make-up, no bobby pins, and with all their clothes on backwards.

A short business meeting preceded the initiation, and various ways of offering patriotic service were discussed. Miss Evelyn Estes was appointed transportation chairman for the semester. On Thursday afternoons the entire group of old and new members will help in Red Cross work.

After the business meeting, the pledges were initiated, and refreshments were served by Miss Gloria Golden, hostess, and Bernita Horton, co-hostess.

Since the first practice, two other men have reported for daily practice, bringing the teams' roster up to 11 men.

Roster Given

The men regularly reporting for practice are Bob Wyrick, Vic Lauderbach, Ken Gabriel, Keith Naylor, Mel Trickey, and Bob Jones all from Santa Ana high school. Bob Levy, from Mesa high school, Arizona; Ron Troutman, of West Liberty high school, Iowa, Bill Neth, who comes from Newport Harbor, Roy Churchill of Huntington High and George Schmidt, of Orange.

Main Street Once Jesuit Footpath

By KATHRYN STERN

Tenth and Main. No, not just an intersection, nor merely the site of Santa Ana Junior college, but actually an historical landmark.

Yes, Tenth and Main marks the footpath which the Jesuit missionaries traversed more than a hundred years ago. Along Main street today, rushing and bustling with activity, students walk. They walk to school along Main street, they walk home along Main street. During the day they cross Main street on the average of three to four times.

Jesuits Walked Here

Yet how many students know that just 130 years ago the first Jesuit missionary trodded wearily on his way from Mission San Diego to Mission San Gabriel? The foot path used through this particular period of California history came to be known as El Camino Real—The King's Highway.

Path Grew

Gradually as settlers came to the coast the path was used more often, and its frequent use necessitated enlargement. The path grew and became little roads extending from Mission San Diego to the northernmost mission of San Francisco.

Today along Main street, reminding us of our colorful past, mission bells are erected on pillars to label our busy thoroughfare as EL CAMINO REAL—THE KING'S HIGHWAY.

Here's That Man Again!

Merry Christmas, everybody! What's that, you think I've got my dates mixed? It's time for pumpkin pie and football games, not for Santa Clause? Well, to put it bluntly, that's what YOU think! F'r instance:

Did you know that if your gifts aren't in the hands of the Post Office by DECEMBER 10, delivery cannot be guaranteed?

Have you thought how crowded the stores will be, and how short of clerks, and how little shopping time you'll have during the holidays (since you will be going to school or working, till the last minute)?

And have you considered what it actually means if you DO spread your Christmas buying over a longer period of time—how it eases the strain on merchants, delivery services, transportation, mails, and your own temper?

Well kids, that's why I dropped in early. Now that you're all convinced—how about passing on my message to your families and friends. "Shop early and make it a MERRIER Christmas!" I'll be seeing you—g'bye now!
